DEMOCRATS IN CONFERENCE

Meeting This Afternoon to Nominate a Ticket

The Democratic city convention is in session this afternoon. A meeting was held this morning and W. W. Price selected as temporary chairman and S. B. Sturgis secretary. The committee on resolutions reported as follows:

We, the Democrats of the city of Anadarko, in convention assembled, reaffirm our allegiance to the broad principles of Democracy as laid down by Thomas Jefferson and incorporated in our national platform. We pledge our loyalty and undivided support to the upbuilding of Anadarko, to the end that she may become the Queen City and metropolis of the southwest and we affirm that in our judgement these results may be best attained under a Democratic administration. We favor municipal ownership of all public utilities and in the event of our success we pledge our administration of the construction and maintenance of an adequate system of waterworks, electric lights, sewerage and all other city improvements. We favor an economical business administration of city affairs. We hold in contempt the threat of the local Republicans that the National Republican administration will withhold appropriations of the funds placed in the treasury by citizens of all parties, for the upbuilding of Anadarko, and denounce such a course as beneath the honor of our political opponents.

Pursuant to call, third ward democrats met in mass convention, in Judge Crum's office, Monday evening, Oct. 7, 1901, for the purpose of selecting ten delegates to the democratic city convention, and two candidates for councilmen and one member of the school board from the third ward. Convention was called to order by W. W. Price who read the call. On motion, W. W. Price was chosen chairman and G. E. Nichols Secretary, of the convention. Ten delegates were chosen as follows: J. M. Schoenheit, Chas. Callahan, E. C. Taylor, W. W. Price, J. T. Blackmore, Carl Glitch, O. H. Gegan, I. H. Kerr, J. B. Lane and W. E. Lovey.

If the Democratic party cannot win with such a good Democrat and thorough gentleman at its head then it is because they are in the minority and this we will never believe until the votes are counted on the night of the 24th of this month.

Let the watchword be harmony and victory will go where goes the banner of democracy.
